

Going Green has never been this FUN!!!

Eco-Camp Adventure Days

Sponsored by the Boy Scouts of America, Westar Energy & the Climate and Energy Project

Saturday, July 18, 2009
Oakdale Park, Salina

For children age 7-12

Saturday, July 18th - 9:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m. @ Oakdale Park (community event with limited space - reservations required)

- Build your own solar oven and bake a pizza
- Build your own bird house
- Ride the "Lighting Bike" and create your own energy diary
- Energy Efficiency Demonstrations by Westar Energy
- FREE lunch!!!
- Learn about the Smoky Hill River ecosystem & participate in its clean-up
- Build a water quality test tube and check the local water quality
- Wind turbine and solar panel demonstrations
- Make your own "Solar Bracelet"
- Organic gardening demonstration
- Learn ways to reduce energy use and save money at home
- Build an edible aquifer ice cream treat
- Lots of games and hands-on "Go-Green" activities
- KSU solar boat and car demonstration

IT'S FUN!

IT'S FREE!

IT'S GREEN!

 minimal fees may apply for some optional craft projects*

Registration is limited to the first 300 children.

All children must have a reservation and must be accompanied by an adult.

Parent's Name _____

Email _____

Child's Name (s) _____

Child's Age (s) _____

Address _____

City _____

Phone _____

To register, mail form to: Boy Scouts of America; P.O. Box 912; Salina, KS 67402 or fax to (785) 825-7752, or email the information above to shannon.williams@scouting.org

For additional information or registration forms, visit www.coronadoscout.org or contact the Boy Scouts of America at (785) 827-4461.