Scout Motto: Be Prepared

The Importance of the Six-County Boy Scout Development Fund:

Scouting's values are more important for our youth than ever before. Sustaining a program of high quality in our rural area requires a higher than usual level of service because of scant population and resources. How we act now will dictate what the legacy of Scouting will be like for future generations here. With your help, we can ensure that Scouting will remain relevant to the community fabric and development of our young people in spite of the obstacles that exist.

The Coronado Area Council is committed to providing outstanding Scouting programs for rural youth in northwest Kansas. Stimulating and supporting volunteers in this area to operate successful troops requires a strong physical presence by the council. The Six-County Boy Scout Development Fund will be restricted specifically to provide the local support and resources our youth and volunteers need.

Thank you for supporting this effort to sustain the Scouting programs of our area.

Sincerely,

Dr. Lynn Kreider
Six-County Boy Scout Fund Chairman
