

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
CORONADO AREA COUNCIL

Scout Law Challenge

Name _____ Pack/Troop/Crew _____

Earn a cool, one-of-a-kind patch and stay active during social distancing by taking part in this challenge. Scouting doesn't have to just take place in a Monday night meeting! The adventures can continue with your own when you Scout at Home! Take pictures and videos to show to your unit leaders and be sure to share them with us. Tag us with #ScoutingAtHomeCAC!

A Scout is Trustworthy

A Scout is trustworthy online, even when no one is looking. We are kind to those we come in contact with online, and we only visit trusted sites. Make sure you are up-to-date on your cyber chip, which is completed annually, by visiting <https://www.scouting.org/training/youth-protection/cyber-chip/>.

Date Cyber Chip completed _____

A Scout is Loyal

A Scout is loyal to their unit! Even though we need to stay home and not have meetings, we can still work on our Scout skills. Show your unit leader pictures of you working on a merit badge, rank requirements, or another award.

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion _____

A Scout is Helpful

Staying at home gives us plenty of opportunity to complete those projects that we've been putting off. Ask your parents what projects you can help them with.

In the box below, write about projects you assisted with, or send pictures to your unit leader.

A Scout is Friendly

Virtual campouts are a fun way to interact with your pack, troop or crew. We are able to “see” our friends and do some fun activities. “Attend” a virtual campout with your unit, council, or national. Make sure to take pictures of the activities you completed while camping.

Date of campout _____

A Scout is Courteous

To stay safe and stop the spread of the virus, it has been recommended that we all wear face covering when we need to go in public. Make your own facemask at home. These can be made from a variety of household materials. Visit CDC.gov to learn how to make a DIY mask, and to learn how to keep yourself and others safe.

Send a picture of you in your mask to your unit leader.

A Scout is Kind

Write at least one letter addressed to a nursing home. Let them know about the fun things you do in Scouts and how you are staying safe at home. Ask the recipient about the things they do for fun and their life growing up. Ask them if they have any similar experiences to Covid-19 from their youth.

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion _____

A Scout is Obedient

Government and health officials have asked families to stay inside for the time being. Find a fun activity that you and your family can do inside to pass the time. This can include a craft, sport, etc.

Write about the activity you did in the box below, or share pictures with your unit leader:

A Scout is Cheerful

During this crazy time we need to find things to laugh about! Make up a joke or funny story to tell your friends and family.

Write your joke or story in the box below:

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion_____

A Scout is Thrifty

A Scout is thrifty with his time and money. We need to use good time management during this time when it is easy to forget what day or time it is. Scouts should be completing schoolwork, chores, and other required activities regardless of what that looks like.

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion_____

A Scout is Brave

Even though we are social distancing we are still able to get outdoors as long as we follow the guidance of health officials. Brave a new hiking trail with your family. Make sure you take your Scout Essentials and only hike on trails that are open to the public at this time.

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion_____

A Scout is Clean

Health officials suggest washing your hands for at least 20 seconds. Create a song, poem, or pledge to say during the 20 seconds of handwashing.

Write it in the box below:

Parent Signature for Approval of Completion _____

A Scout is Reverent

Even though we can't attend church services we can still remain reverent and faithful in our religious duties. Find a way to remain strong in your faith, which can include earning the religious emblem of your faith. Check out <https://www.praypub.org/bsa> for information on religious emblems that can be earned for each denomination.
